South Carolina Teaching Fellows

The mission of the South Carolina Teaching Fellows Program is to recruit talented high school seniors into the teaching profession and to help them develop leadership qualities.

The Teaching Fellows Scholarship is administered through CERRA: Center for Educator Recruitment, Retention, and Advancement.

Visit CERRA.org to begin the application process. The application is available on October 1 of each year and is due by December 1. cerra.org/teaching-fellows-application

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.
Isaiah 40:31
The College of Education at Anderson University prepares teacher candidates to serve as Builders of Knowledge, Values, and Community.

Your Future & Licensure at AU
A school district superintendent, principals, master teachers at Ron Clark Academy, and veteran, award-winning teachers are among our hundreds of education graduates. Accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), we offer bachelor’s degrees that lead to initial teacher licensure through the South Carolina State Department of Education.

Anderson University Teaching Fellows
The AU Teaching Fellows Program prepares outstanding educators to become teacher leaders in their schools and districts in South Carolina.

AU Teaching Fellows Motto:
Servant Leadership
The Anderson University College of Education and the Teaching Fellows program prepare professional educators who are encouraged to emulate the greatest teacher of all, Jesus Christ.
