TEACHING FELLOWS PROGRAM COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Called to Serve as Competent, Caring Educators Committed to Student Success

Welcome to the Charleston Southern University Teaching Fellows page! The mission of the South Carolina Teaching Fellows Program is to recruit talented high school seniors into the teaching profession and help them develop leadership qualities.

Teaching Fellows Award

Charleston Southern University Teaching Fellows are part of an elite group of future teachers who have been selected to receive the Teaching Fellows Award. While they receive this award—up to $6000 per year for four years—Charleston Southern Fellows participate in service-learning opportunities, professional development, and collaborative experiences that prepare them to be innovative teacher-leaders.

CSU is proud to be 1 of only 11 institutions in the state identified as a Teaching Fellow Institution. Following graduation, a Fellow commits to teach in South Carolina one year for each year he or she received the fellowship. The program is administered through the Center for Educator Recruitment, Retention, and Advancement (CERRA).

Applications must be completed between October 1 and December 1 of a candidate's senior year and can be found at the CERRA website: <https://apply.mykaleidoscope.com/scholarships/TeachingFellows2024>

Charleston Southern University School of Education

The mission of the College of Education is to prepare professional educators who, guided by a strong sense of community and the integration of their faith, are academically strong, highly skilled, and morally committed to educating in a wide range of culturally diverse learning environments. CSU has been producing high-quality professional educators for many years. Alumni have been recognized at the local, state, and national levels for their achievements as educational leaders.
